

Christ in the Wilderness, Moretto da Brescia (c. 1515-1520)

The gospel lesson for the first Sunday in Lent describes the fasting and temptation of Jesus in the wilderness. Our bulletin cover art today depicts a fatigued and famished Christ sitting pensively on a rocky terrain punctuated by clefts. Two beech trees are planted in the center. The first is dead and dry while the second, fresh with green leaves, leans towards Jesus offering shelter. As Jesus dwells in solitude, a variety of 'wild' creatures attend him. Each animal is turned towards Jesus bending low, some in submission and others in adoration, which connotes Christ victory over sin and temptation.

The raven perched on the rocks stands for unrest, indifference and ill-fortune. Next to the raven lies a dove in flight, a symbol of the Holy Spirit. The dove in the wilderness emphasizes and reassures us of the presence of God in our lives even in the midst of trials and temptations. The bird next to it on the twig of the parched tree is the goldfinch, which represents victory over death.

Comprising the second group of beasts and birds is the crane, the pelican and the stag. According to medieval bestiaries, cranes are said to sleep together in a group, choosing one among them to keep watch. In order to keep alert and avoid the temptation of sleep, the crane keeping watch drops stones on its own foot, exemplifying its loyalty and faithfulness. Bending low by its side is the pelican, which was believed to wound itself in order to feed its young with its own blood. It liturgically expresses Christ sacrificing himself for humanity and thus becomes a symbol of atonement. The stag nearby stands for purity in times of persecution.

The next band of beasts are the wily and the crafty ones – the fox, the basilisk, the bear, and the adder. Thanks to its ever-scheming nature, the fox is the perfect symbol for the devil who is always on the prowl to strike those who succumb. On its right is the mythical creature, the basilisk, acclaimed as the king of the serpents. The bear stooping before Jesus symbolizes evil. The adder, right in front of the bear, is a serpent with a deadly bite. Representing ardent sin, it is often depicted crushed by the feet of Jesus.

The last group consists of the black bird, known for its enticing song; the jay, symbolic of gossip; the phoenix, a reminder of the resurrection; and the lion, known for alertness and watchfulness. Thus through their appealing allegories the beasts and birds bring out the essence of the Gospel narrative and the substance of art.

During the season of Lent, the crosses carried in our processions and on the altar are draped in purple, the color of repentance and preparation. The crosses will remain draped from Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday. On Palm Sunday, the cloth will change to red, and will remain through Maundy Thursday in preparation for Jesus's crucifixion. On Good Friday, the crosses will be draped in black, symbolizing Jesus' earthly death. On Easter Sunday, the crosses will be uncovered or draped in white, in celebration of the resurrection.

Lent, Passion, and Easter are the only times the crosses are draped in the liturgical year. This is to remind us of the redemptive purpose of Jesus' suffering (purple), crucifixion (red), death (black), and resurrection (white), which these liturgical seasons commemorate. The rest of the year the cross is uncovered to assure us that Jesus is risen.

THE GREAT LITANY

*Adapted from BCP - Church of Ireland
Musical Setting: Richard Phillips (b. 1959)*

The Great Litany is an intercessory prayer including various petitions with fixed responses by the congregation. It is the first recorded English-language rite – prepared by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer, first published in 1544, and printed in the 1549 Book of Common Prayer. John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, included The Great Litany in his Sunday Service for the Methodists of North America. This prayer of supplication is broadly inclusive. Because of its penitential tone, The Great Litany is especially appropriate during Lent.

The clergy will speak each petition, followed by a sung response. The congregation is encouraged to join in singing each response.

THE LORD'S PRAYER 895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

<sup>2</sup>Happy are they to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, and in whose spirit there is no guile!

<sup>3</sup>While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, because of my groaning all day long.

<sup>4</sup>For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.

<sup>5</sup>Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and did not conceal my guilt.

<sup>6</sup>I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord." Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost, As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

This Lent and Eastertide, Highlands is partnering with RIP Medical Debt, a non-profit organization dedicated to removing the burden of medical debt, using sophisticated data analytics to pinpoint the debt portfolios of those most in need of relief. RIP purchases unpaid and unpayable debt at significantly reduced rates; this debt is forgiven, no strings attached. For every $1 donated, an average of $100 in debilitating debt is forgiven. ### INVITATION TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

The message of the Hebrew prophets, Jesus, Paul, and the early church was always a message of welcome and inclusion for all. The image of God's kingdom is of something small and insignificant growing into something larger and of great significance. The oppressed, the alien, and the outcast were all welcomed, included, and cared for. In this sense, our faith is built upon the idea of gracious hospitality. Followers of Jesus are not about walls of exclusion but bridges of grace and acceptance. Ours is a faith of invitation, for all to come to know Jesus as the living Christ who overcomes all brokenness, sin, and even death, offering a way to make all things new. This invitation extends to you. If you desire to explore what this means for you, please speak to a member of the clergy after the service or sometime this week. We welcome the opportunity to visit with you.
