NEW! CM Saturday Hospitality Hour

Highlands' Community Ministries program is one of the defining ministries of our congregation. Now is your opportunity to serve in this church's expanding efforts to be God's faithful presence in the heart of Five Points South. Starting February 10, we will begin serving breakfast on Saturdays to all comers in the Fellowship Hall. We are looking for volunteers to spend one Saturday morning a month in service. Would you be willing to be part of, for example, a first-Saturday-of-the-month team? Or a third Saturday team? Maybe you have never served in Community Ministries before and you'd like to know what it will be like. Reach out to Danny Jones with your questions or to express your interest!

CM Fellowship Hall Work Day - February 3

As we prepare to expand our Community Ministries Hospitality Hours to Saturday service, we need to spend a little time and elbow grease preparing the Fellowship Hall for our guests. Join us on Saturday, February 3 from 10:00 AM to NOON to scrub tables and chairs, straighten up the serving area, and organize supplies. There will also be an opportunity for those who have never served in Community Ministries or who haven't served since before the pandemic to "learn the ropes" and get some training before Saturday service begins on February 10. There's no need to RSVP but if you know you'll be able to join in, we'd love to hear from you.

January 28, February 4, and February 11 in Room E210

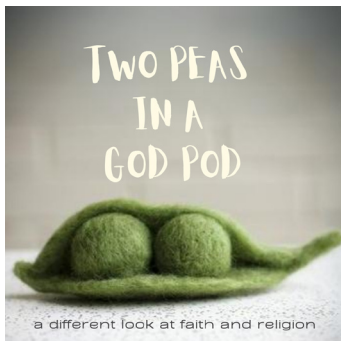

Mom, Educator, Principal of the Year and mediator Nancy Barkemeyer will help us explore how to raise children who are grateful and more self-reliant. Using NYT best-selling author Wendy Mogal's book The Blessing of a Skinned Knee, and sharing stories of everyday parenting problems and examining them through the lens of the Torah, the Talmud, and important Jewish teachings, Nancy will lead us away from habits of over-protection, overindulgence and over-scheduling our children's lives to raising more self-disciplined, grateful and resourceful children.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

January 7 – February 11 in Room E209

Dr. Larry Brasher, Professor of Religion - Emeritus at Birmingham-Southern College will lead a class on the foundational beliefs of Christianity as presented in the Apostles' Creed. This class will explore the Apostles' Creed which has origins in the second century and was considered a faithful summary of the faith of the apostles. The class will look at teachings about God, the Incarnation (the humanity and divinity of Jesus), the Atonement (the death of Jesus), the Trinity, and the Resurrection and its implications for individuals and the world.
